The IEEE International Conference on RFID-Technology and Applications 2010 (RFID-TA2010) will be held on June 17~19, 2010 in Guangzhou, China. This conference is organized by Sun Yat-sen University under the auspices of IEEE and the IEEE Technical Committee on RFID.

IEEE RFID-TA2010 will provide a forum for the advancement of RFID technology and practice, and will aim to strengthen relations between industry, research laboratories and universities. Authors are invited to submit 6-page original papers in PDF format to present their latest research and applications in all areas of RFID.

TOPICAL AREAS OF INTEREST

Topical areas of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Antenna Theory & Design
- Circuits and Architectures
- System Deployment & Design
- Radio Frequency Investigation and Utilization
- Intelligent RFID
- RFID Middleware
- RFID Applications
- RFID in the Internet of Things
- RFID and Sensor Integration
- RFID Information and Services Infrastructures
- RFID in Vehicle Identification and Tracking
- RFID in Food Safety and Quality Management
- RFID in Manufacturing
- RFID in Manufacturing
- RFID in Retail
- RFID in Supply Chain
- RFID in Inventory Control
- RFID in Asset Tracking
- RFID in Warehousing and Airline Baggage
- RFID in Pharmaceutical and Healthcare
- RFID in Libraries
- Security and Privacy
- RFID in Passport Identification
- RFID in Anti-Counterfeiting
- RFID in Authentication and Authorization
- Logistics with RFID.

The conference proceedings will be published by IEEE. All papers will be searchable by IEEE Xplore and EI Compendex (pending approval).

IMPORTANT DATES
